The Chicago Eagle, a newspaper for all classes of readers, is devoted to National, State and Local Politics; to the publication of Municipal, State, County and Sanitary District news; to comment on people in public life; to clean baseball and sports; and to the publication of General Information of Public Interest, Financial, Commercial and Political.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1921.

TO INVESTIGATE CITY HALL FINANCES.

Senator James E. MacMurray is after the city hall. He is considering suggestions that he expand his proposed committee of senators for investigating Chicago's city hall finances to include members of both houses. For that reason the Hyde Park senator decided not to call up today the resolution he introduced yesterday, but to let it lie until the senate reassembles next week.

The MacMurray resolution reads:

"Whereas, The government of the city of Chicago has failed to pay operating expenses out of current revenues for the last two years and is submitting an issue of bonds to the voters of the city of Chicago for the purpose of raising money wherewith to pay off this deficit; and,

"Whereas, It is expected that the city of Chicago will be asking for further legislation from this general assembly to meet its supposed further financial needs; and,

"Whereas, The question as to the adequacy of revenues for the city of Chicago involves not only the question of the amount and sources of present income, but also the question of the wise and prudent expenditure thereof;

"Now, therefore, in anticipation of the revenue legislation which will be asked of the general assembly in behalf of the city of Chicago and in behalf of other taxing bodies in the city of Chicago, and in order that the general assembly may be properly informed as to the proper and legitimate revenue needs of such tax-spending bodies,

"Be it resolved, That there be constituted a committee of five senators to be appointed by the president of the senate to inquire into and ascertain the amount and source of the revenues of the city of Chicago and of other tax raising and tax spending bodies in the city of Chicago and to examine in detail into the expenditures thereof, and to report the results of its investigation as soon as possible."

GREAT CARNIVAL ON WEST SIDE

What is planned to be the greatest community celebration ever held in Chicago will begin on the west side March 1 with the opening of a new commercial center on Madison street between California and Homan avenues.

At a meeting of the West Center Mercantile association Monday night at 3274 Madison street, seventy-one west side merchants announced the completion of plans for the celebration.

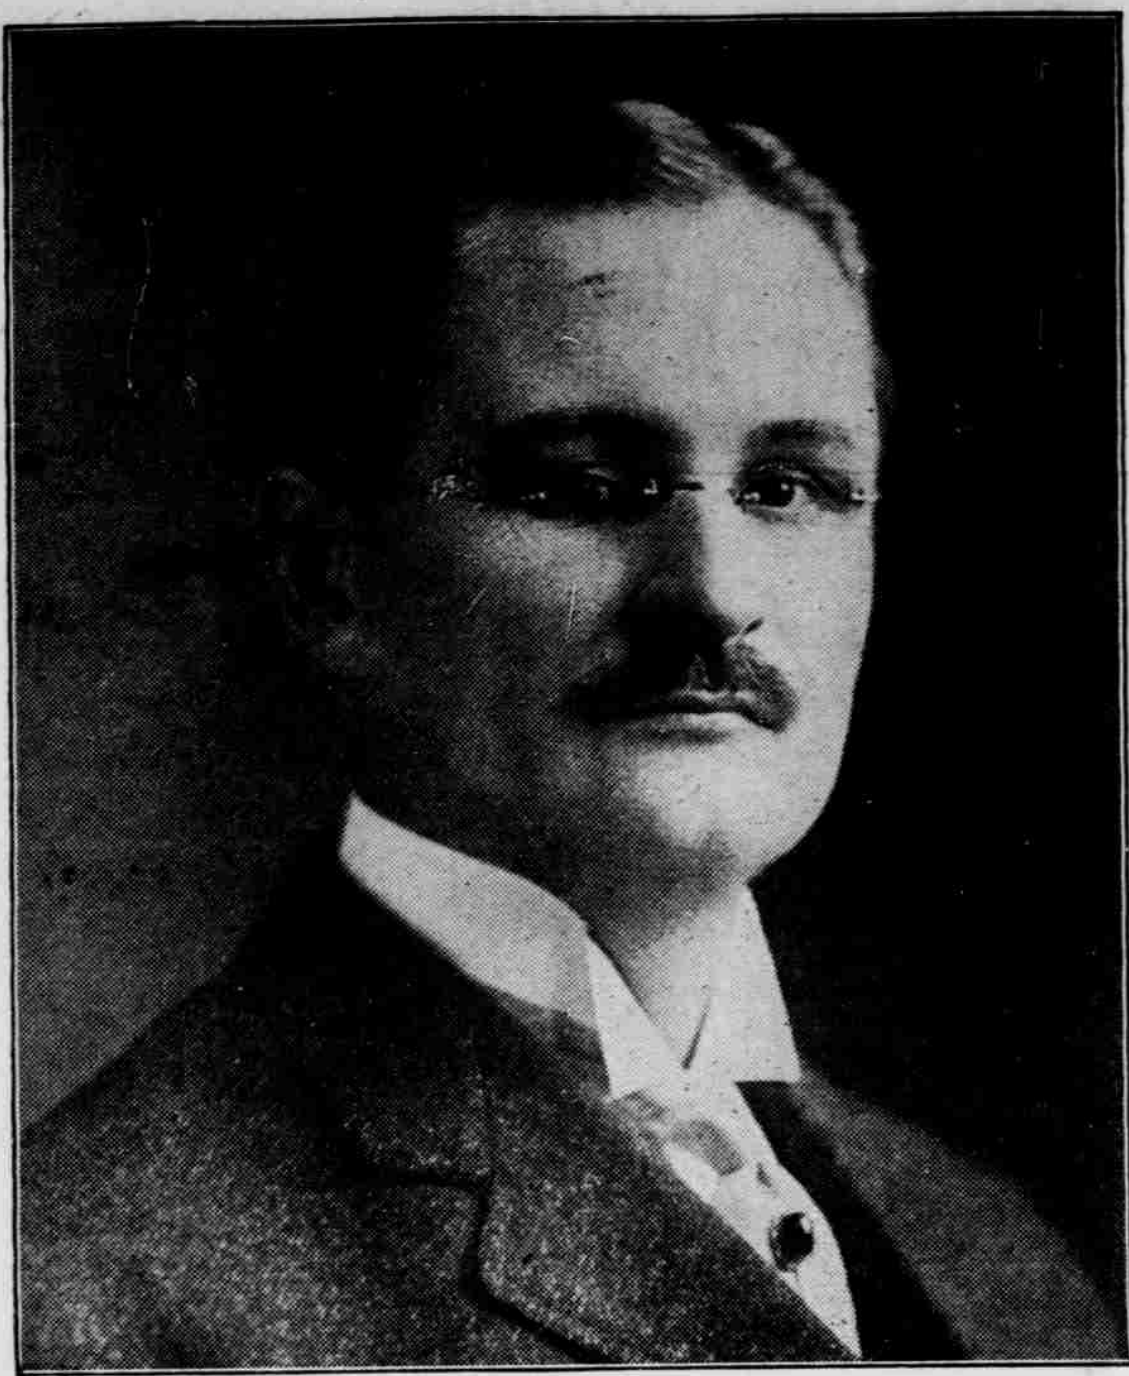

On March 1 the new Madison & Kedzie state bank, and the gigantic new Senate theatre, seating 32,000, the largest in the United States, will open. Cluster lights which will be a permanent feature will be lighted for the first time that night.

RECORDERS OF WRONGS

Many people keep records of the wrong numbers they receive when trying to telephone somebody.

James M. Whalen is making a splendid record as county civil service commissioner. He deserves well at the hands of the people, as he has always been faithful to every public trust imposed on him.

The city department of gas and electricity never was in better hands than it is now. William G. Keith, the commissioner, is an able, honest, and progressive man.

ISAAC N. POWELL.

Popular and Highly Respected President of the South Side State Bank.

BAD PHONE SERVICE

Oak Park has 50,000 inhabitants. It is in the Chicago telephone district, connected by L. roads, surface roads and good streets with Chicago which it adjoins. Yet the phone company seeks its inhabitants with exorbitant tolls. The surface lines charge 18 cents carfare to reach it, and the phone company refuses to place the name of Oak Parkers in its Chicago telephone directory. Oak Park might just as well be in Germany or Poland so far as any recognition from the phone trust is concerned. It has no one to take its part and is the visible prey of hungry corporations without hope of help. It might be added incidentally that the Phone Trust delivers its bills by personal message in Oak Park. In Chicago and elsewhere it mails its monthly bills. This shows the wisdom of the Phone Trust. It takes three days for a letter or newspaper to reach Oak Park by mail from Chicago.

Emmett Whealan is making a splendid record as a member of the County Board of Commissioners. He is a veteran Chicago printer who stands high with everybody in the trade and as a public official is winning friends everywhere.

Charles E. Ummach, president of the well known R. Williamson Company, is one of Chicago's progressive citizens who is always working hard for the upbuilding of the city, and the advancement of its interests. He stands high with everybody who knows him.

Peter Reinberg has made a splendid record as president of the county board.

S. I. SHANE.

Popular President of the Western Wrecking & Lumber Company.

EAGLETS.

Evidently native Americans don't amount to much in the minds of our trust houses. Our immediate suburbs like Oak Park and Evanston are peopled largely by N. A's. Phone tolls bury Oak Park telephone subscribers, the omission of their names from city telephone directories embalm them. The fare charge of 18 cents for reaching Oak Park on surface lines commit them to oblivion.

Otto Rice, the popular secretary and manager of the Quick Service Laundry Company, would make a splendid West Park commissioner. He is public spirited and popular, and has the good wishes of his fellow citizens.

Jacob Levy, the well known Twenty-first ward Democratic leader, would make a good county commissioner.

First Assistant Corporation Counsel James Breen has ruled that every city automobile, used or unused, must pay a vehicle tax. "All cars must carry individual tags," he says, regardless of any cars held in "reserve."

John U. Smyth, the well known real estate and insurance man, is always a booster for the west side.

Judge Frank Johnston Jr. is making a good record on the Circuit bench.

Clarence S. Piggett stands high at the Bar and is respected by the people. He will be a judge some day and in the near future at that.

Adam Wolf is one of the most popular men in Chicago. You can't beat him.

Dominick Marubio is a leader in the teaming and transfer business of Chicago. He has built up his big business by strict attention to the needs and wishes of his many patrons.

Coroner Peter M. Hoffman is one of the most popular public officials in Illinois.

George E. Brennan is one of the ablest and most popular Democratic leaders in Illinois. His acquaintance with conditions all over the state, his great circle of friends and his unimpeachable democracy are strong elements in his success.

Carl Appel, the owner of the justly famous North Side Turner Hall, and restaurant, is a wide awake citizen, of whom Chicago is proud.

Judge William E. Dever is making a splendid record on the Appellate bench.

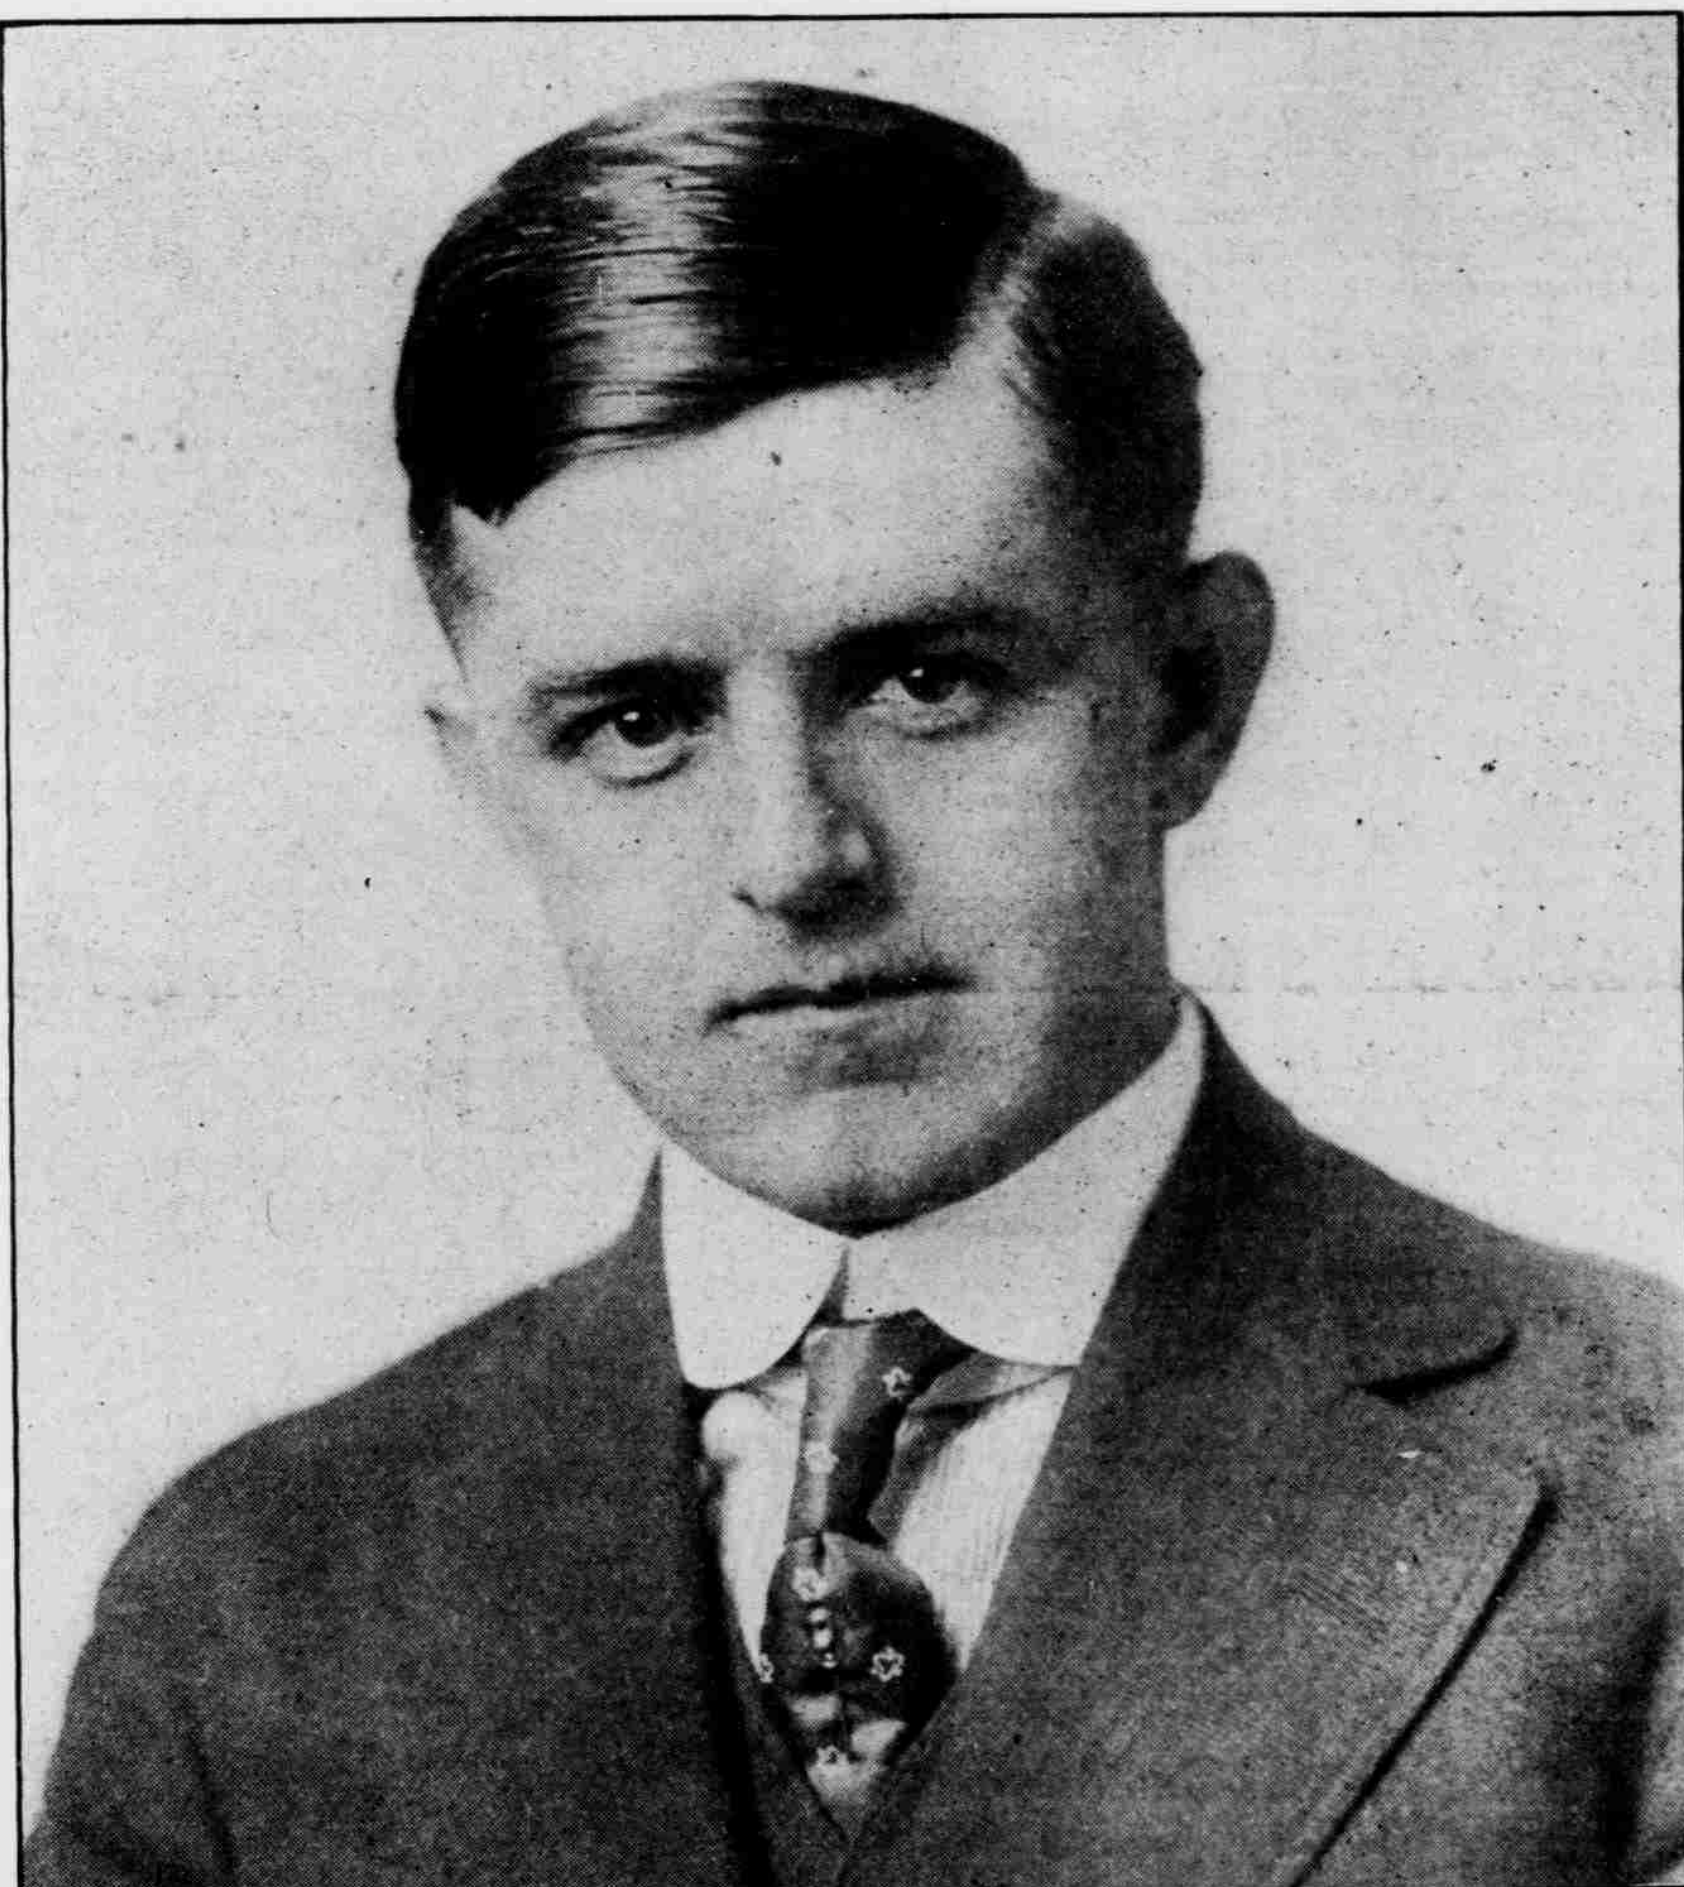

The county clerk's office under Robert M. Switzer has never known a scandal. It is clean, efficient and ably managed.

Edward S. Day, first assistant state's attorney, is much talked of for judge of the Circuit court. He is able and popular and would make a good judge.

Oscar F. Mayer, as a business man and a citizen, does credit to Chicago. He stands for progress and is one of the men who have helped make the city great.

The leading members of every society and club in Chicago read The Eagle.

Ben J. Short, the popular lawyer, would make a great judge.

JAMES M. WHALEN.

Popular Young Leader in Chicago Business and Political World.

Edward A. Cudahy stands foremost among the men who have helped make Chicago the great city she is today.

Fred W. Upham would make a splendid United States Senator if he would consent to make the race for that position.

John T. Driscoll has done much towards the upbuilding of Chicago and especially of the great West Side. An extensive property owner himself, he has always been foremost in every movement tending to further the interests of the city or of his fellow citizens. No man is more respected and no man asks for less.

Sidney Adler, popular and able lawyer, would make a great judge.

Frank Johnston, Jr., able judge of the Circuit court, would make a great governor of Illinois.

John R. Caverly's record on the Municipal bench is worthy of all praise.

Judge Kiekham Scanlan fulfills the expectations of his friends. His record on the bench is a good one.

Patrick A. Nash is making a great record on the Board of Review.

Judge John K. Caverly gives general satisfaction to the public in the Municipal Court and grows more popular every day.

Peter Reinberg has saved millions for the people as president of the county board.

The Mechanics & Traders State Bank is making a splendid record and is gaining new customers and depositors every day. It has an ideal location in the heart of the great west side at the corner of Washington and Desplaines street.

Judge Kiekham Scanlan, the able jurist and popular orator, is often spoken of for high political honors.

An appeal from the ruling refusing higher gas rates in Chicago was made in the Sangamon County Court Monday by the gas company, which had applied for an order making permanent the temporary rate boost allowed during the war. The commission ruled that as labor costs had been reduced and that prices were going lower the higher rate was not justified. Hearing on the appeal will start next month.

Albert C. Ketter, the well known and popular president of the Ketter-Elliott Company, is one of the most highly respected of that class of able and progressive men who have helped make this city great.

John U. Smyth, the well known insurance man, with offices at 716 West Madison street, is one of the rising young men of Chicago. He is popular, able and energetic and is a booster for everything that makes for the betterment of this, his native city.

William O. Hawkins, manager for the big coal company of Richards & Sons, is one of the most popular and wide awake business men of the city. He is a leader in the trade and all who have had business dealings with him respect him.

Captain T. F. Barry, the popular general manager of the Globe Mutual Life Insurance Company of Chicago, is one of the most popular underwriters in the state, as well as a progressive citizen whose views are always popular with men who love justice and honesty.

Leo Oppenheimer, vice-president of the famous Messinger lunch rooms, is one of the coming men of Chicago. He is popular, able and progressive.

WILLIAM H. MALONE.

Able and Honest Republican Leader Who Has Done Great Work for the People in Fighting to Lower the Taxes.

EAGLETS.

Joseph F. Haas is making a splendid record as recorder of deeds. His office is conducted along lines that give great satisfaction to the public.

Sanitary Trustee William J. Healy is the father of the Orleans street bridge—the greatest improvement ever made by the city of Chicago on the Chicago river. Mr. Healy, while Alderman from the Eighteenth ward, fought week in and week out until he secured the passage of an ordinance and appropriation for this much needed structure.

S. P. Messinger has done much for Chicago in furnishing the people with a fine lot of first-class restaurants.

McKenzie Cleland, the able former judge, is a man who is never afraid to stand up for what he believes to be right.

Chicago needs a new postoffice building and needs it badly right away.

The new building should be located in the center of the great West Side where car lines are direct routes to north and south, east and west districts of the city.

George W. Paulin, the great furrier, has made a business record for honesty and integrity that wins for him hosts of friends.

Charles Krutck always made a good public record.

Clarence S. Darrow is always the friend of the poor and the downtrodden and no one stands higher at the bar.
